Lyrics

Verse 1

I've been wondering lately,
When we're going Home;
The signs of the times tell us.
It won't be long
'Til Jesus will split the eastern skies,
When He comes for His bride.

Verse 2

Imagine the glory,
How precious the thought,
When the clouds are the road
He's gonna walk;
And together we're gonna rise
To meet Him in the sky.

Chorus

We've been watchin' and waitin',
Longin' and prayin',
For the trumpet to sound,
And the skies to be breakin';
What a day it's gonna be, my friend,
When Jesus comes again.

Verse 3

It could be any moment,
The church will take flight,
The Savior returns,
Like a thief in the night;
And the saints are coming out of the ground;
Come, Lord Jesus, even now!

Chorus

Bridge

Oh, for 2000 years we've been looking up,
What a day when we say, "Here He comes, here He comes!"

Chorus
